When you go to a "boteco" you are essentially looking for a very cold beer, mouth-watering appetizers, a pleasant atmosphere, and, of course, a moment of relaxation with family and friends. "Botecos" are not exclusive to Brazil, and they certainly go well with the tropical climate of Orlando Florida. Are you ready for the ultimate "Boteco" experience? You will get hooked, we promise...

The term "Boteco" originated in Rio de Janeiro at the beginning of the 19th century. Boteco comes from the Portuguese word "Botica" and the Spanish word "Bodega"; both come from the Greek word for warehouse - "apothéke." Botecos served as a community center and also attracted journalists, writers, artists, and students. Masterpieces of Brazilian culture including, samba, political movements, and soccer federations were created on the counters and tables of neighborhood Botecos. If you're missing authentic Brazilian food, you found the right place to eat on Orlando's world famous International Drive (I-Drive). That cold beer you crave for at the end of the day, our famous Brazilian "Caipirinha," and our fantastic Brazilian pastries are all awaiting you. Enjoy our 5 big screen T.V.'s for all the soccer games and your favorite Brazilian television stations. Enjoy Boteco Orlando's unique experience and savor delicious Brazilian dishes while toasting with your friends! In Brazil, a "boteco" is a hang out spot for night-life lovers.
